A virtuous and faithful woman of God, Constance Noel Thompson Scott went home to be with the Lord on January 03, 2014. Divinely anointed, Constance was born the seventh child in the seventh month to the late Ernest Cletus Thompson and Bessie Mae Lewis Thompson, in Winston-Salem, Forsyth County, North Carolina.

Adored and respected wife, Mama, Nina, sister, aunt and friend, Constance accepted the salvation of Christ at an early age. She was an active member of St. Andrews Methodist and Mt. Carmel Baptist Churches in Winston-Salem, NC. She was also an active member of Pilgrim Rest Baptist and Word First Ministries Churches in Oklahoma City, OK respectively. She enjoyed sharing the Love and the Word of God with others.

Constance attended Forsyth County public schools and graduated from Albert H. Anderson Senior High School. Constance's life spanned the eras of segregation and the elections of President Barack Obama.

Achieving tremendous success, Constance leaves a legacy of excellence. In addition to being multi-talented, Constance was a manufacturing professional and entrepreneur. She was also a musician, a dancer, a model, a cook, a seamstress, a gardener and an artist. The capstones of her diverse 50-year career include Scott Rental Properties and retirement from Lucent Technologies, Inc.

A devoted and loyal family woman and friend, Constance will be reunited with her parents and her siblings Kaye Louise Thompson, Carolyn Ann T. Andrews, Barbara Jean Thompson, Betsy T. Williams, Sharon Elizabeth Thompson, and Ernest Donald "Don" Thompson and Ashley "Teddy" Thompson.
