Obituary

Doris Hooks (Mama) was born September 1, 1944 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. God called her home to rest in eternal bliss on Wednesday, January 8, 2014, at the age of 69 years old in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Doris was born to Marjorie Manning and Artemis Mitchell, but was raised by her stepfather, Will Gage.

She married Earl Hooks, Sr. on September 27, 1966 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Together they raised a family of six children. Doris was devoted to being a mother, wife and grandmother. She never let a day go by not letting her family know how much she loved them. A member of Neighborhood Missionary Baptist Church for over 30 years, she worked continually in service to the Lord.

Doris graduated from Douglass High School. She continued her education at Rose State College and Moore-Norman Vo-Tech. She worked for St. Anthony Hospital, Tinker Air Force Base and went on to work for Volunteers of America where she retired as a Developmental Rehabilitation Specialist.

Doris Hooks (Mama) loved the Lord, her family, and her church congregation. She raised her family in the admonition of the Lord. Her soul purpose was to be a woman of God and to ensure she instilled in her family that the Lord is our author and finisher. She will be greatly missed from the depths of our hearts.

She was preceded in death by her eldest brother, her mother and father, her grandparents, and youngest sister.

Surviving are her devoted husband of 48 years, Earl Hooks, Sr.; two sons: Reverend Earl (Erica) Hooks, Jr. of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Christopher (Teresa) Hooks of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; four daughters: Deatrice (Rodney) Warren of Midwest City, Oklahoma; Sheronda (Kevin) Sanders of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Tanesha (Gee) of Midwest City, Oklahoma; and Margie (Robbie) Summers of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; ten grandchildren; a host of siblings and friends.
