Obituary

Larry Wayne Merriweather was born on December 3, 1955 in Little Rock, Arkansas. His parents were Ardean Harrison and Anthony Deuire.

Larry was a hard worker. His field of work was mostly in construction. Larry also worked in the community while he lived in Arkansas getting children to refrain from gang violence, by giving them fun activities to do.

Larry was a humble and warm person to be around, always putting a smile on someone's face.

Larry united in matrimony to Bobbi Jean Brown. From this union one child was born, Imania N. Carrington. After the death of Bobbi, Larry was united in matrimony to Shelia Ann Thomas, adding four children: Nadia, Antwain, Orlando and Donta.

Larry left this life on January 16, 2014. He is preceded in death by his parents, Ardean Harrison and Anthony Deuire; wives, Bobbie Jean Brown and Sheila Ann Thomas, and son, Antwain Thomas. He is survived by his daughters: Imania and Nadia; sons: Orlando and Donta; sisters: Linda Faye and Billie Faye; one brother, Michael Merriweather; and a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
