Obituary

Donald Ray Taylor was born on February 3, 1944 to John Henry and Lorine Taylor in Wynburg, Tennessee. He went into the United States Army right after graduating high school and was stationed in Germany for 2 years, before coming back to the States. He then became a welder for over 30 years. His hobbies was fishing and hunting.

Don accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church for many, many years, and he loved singing gospel music, and spending time with his family, wife, Linda Taylor and his two sons, Curtis and Chris Taylor, along with his newest grandson, Aiden Don Taylor, but most of all, he truly loved the Lord.

Left with precious memories, is his wife, Linda Taylor of Oklahoma City; his two sons, Curtis and Chris of Oklahoma City; his mother, Lorine Taylor of Dyersburg, Tennessee; four brothers, John V of Oklahoma City; James of Dyersburg, Tennessee; Robert of Dyersburg, Tennessee; and Nathaniel of Dyersburg, Tennessee; two sisters, Maryann of Memphis, Tennessee; and Marilyn of Memphis, Tennessee; a host of other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his father, John Henry Taylor.
