Obituary

Mable Boyland Wheaton was born July 25, 1940 in Memphis, Tennessee to Enoch and Mable Boyland. Her parents and several siblings preceded her in death.

She received her early education in Memphis, Tennessee. Mable moved to Los Angeles, California with her two sons, Anthony and Alvin. She found employment with Matel Toys and later became employed with the U.S. Postal Services.

Mable married Walter Dukes and to this union one daughter was born, Teri Lynn Dukes. This marriage dissolved after 26 years.

In 1988, she married Nathaniel Wheaton, Jr. in Los Angeles, California. They moved to Castle, Oklahoma in 1989. Mable continued her employment with the U.S. Postal Service in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She retired after 25 years of service.

Mable's hobbies were many, cooking, fishing, bowling, softball, and gardening. She showed great hospitality to all who came by. She also loved attending to her chickens and kitty cats.

Sister Mable was a loving and devoted member of the Full Gospel Non Denominational Church of Boley, Oklahoma where she attended Sunday School, church, and was choir president. She started the Pastor Aid Committee and served as President over that committee. Mable supported the church in many ways. She was a member of the Eastern Star Association where she served as Associate Worthy Matron of Golden Bean Chapter 126. Our sister had a personal relationship with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Mable loved her family, her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Her life spoke for her in Boley and surrounding committees and throughout the world.

She leaves to cherish her memories her husband, Nathaniel Wheaton, Jr. of the home; two sons, Anthony Boyland of Los Angeles, California, and Alvin (Melanie) Boyland of Norman, Oklahoma; one daughter, Teri Lynn Dukes of Las Vegas, Nevada; one sister, Ester Lee of Memphis, Tennessee; a stepdaughter, Suprena (Leandro) Guzman of Lancaster, California; one stepson, Nathan Wheaton; a loving niece of Los Angeles, California; 11 grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
