Obituary

Tony Colbert was born October 17, 1961 to Effie Marie Mason and James Colbert.

Tony accepted Christ at an early age at Macedonia Baptist Church, later Macedonia Baptist Church merged with Mt. Elam Baptist Church under the later Reverend W.L. Denton and T.L. Turner, and later in Jones Nursing Home.

Tony attended Creston Hill Elementary, Taft Middle School and Capital Hill High School. Tony was self employed, his love of working on cars and cooking.

Tony was preceded in death by his mother, Effie M. Mason and father, James Colbert; brothers: Michael Mason, Arthor Joe Colbert; sisters: Pasty Ruth Cook and Katrina Mason.

He leaves to cherish his memory, three brothers: Algie E. Mason (Bobbie) of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Richard L. Mason (Becky) of San Antonio, Texas; and Steve Mason (Thersa) of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; three sisters: Margaret McCoy, Theressia Mason, Cynthia Mason (Bobby), all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; one aunt, Elda Jones of Hugo, Oklahoma; one special friend of the family as one of us, Perstia Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, who he called his kids, he loves you all and a host of relatives and friends.

SAYING GOOD-BYE

I never thought that saying good-bye would be so hard to do. But it probably wouldn't be caddy if it wasn't you. I never thought the day would come when you wouldn't be around. I am going to miss my visits that we had, but I know I got to get myself together because you wouldn't want me down. I never thought that I would one day have to live without your smile. But I know we all must go this way so this will just take me awhile. But I will remember the thing that we talk about and learn from each other and practice them over and over again. I never thought that our good-bye would end up being like this, but I can definitely say that you will truly be missed. I never thought that saying good-bye would be this way because if so I would have told you all things I needed to say. I never thought losing you would hurt me this bad, but I know that it God's will so I can't be mad. I never thought that I would have to spend any holiday without you. But I'm preparing myself to carry on because I know that's what you would want me to do. Love You, Your Sister Cynthia
