Obituary

Evelyn Nesbit Daniels was born to the union of Kassie Horace and Lula Coleman in Purcell, Oklahoma on February 27, 1907. She was the third of four children, all preceded her in death.

Mrs. Daniels attended school both elementary and high school in Wellston, Oklahoma. During her youth, she attended Langston University and earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education. Education has always been a passion of hers. She taught for many years at Booker T. Washington Elementary in Purcell, Oklahoma.

During her tenure at Booker T. Washington Elementary, she met and married the love of her life, Mr. Fred David Daniels of Purcell in 1932. This union lasted over 54 years.

The Daniels moved to Oklahoma City in 1943, where they established a wonderful home. In 1953, they joined Tabernacle Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend E.W. Perry. Mrs. Daniels was very active and served in various capacities in the church. She was an avid supporter of the Adult Sunday School Department for over 40 years. Also during that time she was chairperson, secretary and Lesson Leader for the Mission Circle No. 12. Moreover, she was appointed to Dean of Christian Education for 8 years under the direction of Pastor John L. Mayshack.

On Sunday, March 16, 2014, Evelyn Nesbit Daniels moved from a life of labor, to an eternal life of reward. Those left to cherish her memories are two devoted grand nephews: Mr. Richard W. Bradford (Edna) and Mr. Stanley G. Bradford of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; two grand nieces: Mrs. Brenda Nixon of Tampa, Florida and Mrs. Marsha Flint of Ft. Worth, Texas; four great nephews, three great nieces, six great, great nephews and three great, great nieces.
