Obituary

Paulette Estelle Lewis was born on March 21, 1947 to Belvy Lewis and Dortha Jean Lewis in Camden, New Jersey.

The family moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where she spent most of her life. Paulette graduated from Douglass High School in 1965. She attended college from there and went to work for the State of Oklahoma at the Department of Environmental Quality until her retirement.

At an early age, Paulette accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was a member of Unity Baptist Church where her parents were also long time members.

She was an avid bingo player and enjoyed playing often with friends. She was also a collector of fine purses and antiques and enjoyed being around people. She also enjoyed reading and traveling.

Paulette leaves to cherish her memory, two children: Valerie Lewis of Oklahoma City and son, Perry Harding, Jr. of Washington, D.C.; her stepmother, Eunice Lewis (Big Mama); her longtime fiancé, Marvin Cargile; and a host of additional family members, as well as many friends, but especially, Audrey, Joyce, Gloria, and Ramona.
