Obituary

Cora Lee Brazille was born August 16, 1939 in Burneyville, Oklahoma to Christine Gaines and Thelbert Mathis. Cora lived the early part of life with her grandma, Rose Mathis.

She attended Dunbar Elementary in Burneyville, Oklahoma. Later, she attended Marietta High School where she graduated. She was a very good basketball player.

Cora accepted Christ in heart at an early age, and ever since then she has been running and working for the Lord.

When Cora moved to Oklahoma City, she met and married Irvin Caldwell and to this union one son was born, Michell Fernando Caldwell (deceased).

Later, Cora met and married Charles Brazille, Sr., which resulted in the blending of their two families into one large and loving one of ten children.

Being in a wheelchair for 33 years or more didn't stop her. She was a homemaker and a great cook.

Cora was an awesome lady, who always displayed kindness in a loving manner to all who knew her. Always had a kind word and words of wisdom. She was a beautiful woman inside and out. Words to describe her: kind, loving, considerate, encouraging and patient. We will all miss that "Beautiful Smile."

Cora was the church Mother at New Bethel C.O.G.I.C. for 18 years, very loyal and faithful until God called her home on March 30, 2014. She is preceded in death by her parents: Christine Gaines and Thelbert Mathis; her husband, Charles Brazille, Sr.; two sons: Michell (Mickey), Walter and granddaughter, Coressa; five brothers and one sister: Ornetta Jones, A.J. Douglass, A.D. Douglass, Robert Mathis, Willie Joe Washington, and Billy Joe Washington.

She leaves to celebrate her home going four daughters: Sherrie of Denver, Colorado; Patricia (Larry), Chandra (Cliff), and Arlee; four sons: Charles (PrinceElla), Claefon (Rhonda), Cameron (Joyce) and Keith; her sisters: Willie Ruth Toles (Elmer Gene), Jimmie Jewel Willis, Linda Marie Andrews; three brothers: Harry Mathis, Charles Willis and Danny Willis; 13 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren, all her many very special nieces and nephews; and a special niece Vallaire; cousins, relatives and friends, and her extended loving family, the Harris family.
