Obituary

Janice Marie Goldsmith was the sixth child of eight children and the youngest daughter born to the parents of Otis and Frankie Goldsmith on January 30, 1956 in Oklahoma City. The Lord called her home April 9, 2014.

Janice attended Oklahoma City Public Schools and graduated from Douglass High School, Class of 1974.

Janice loved children and people so much, once she graduated, she chose to go straight into the work force.

She worked with children at Avery Chapel; she served as a host because she loved working with the public; she also worked for the city helping our community.

As a young girl, Janice would often say that she wanted to have 10 sons. As an adult, she did not have 10 sons, but she was blessed to give birth to 2 sons, and her 8 nephews were a big part of her life.

During the early 1980's, Janice gave birth to her 2 sons, Kedric and Kyland.

After death parted her from the love of her life, Janice centered her life around her 2 sons, grandchildren, sisters, family and friends.

Janice was deemed by her family and close friends as the amazing macaroni and cheese chef. This dish was the highlight for all family functions, as well as special occasions.

When she began to have health problems and her eye sight began to fail, she continued to bring her gold dish spread to the table in order to please her loved ones, as well as contributing to the occasions.

Janice enjoyed being there for her family, she worked in the capacity of helping her older siblings with the nurturing of their children; she was the #1 Baby Sitter.

Janice loved to travel and she didn't have a problem with meeting people; she was loving, kind, a great listener, and a very inspirational person.

Janice was taught about the Lord at an early age and later was baptized in the name of Jesus and filled with the Holy Spirit.

On May 23, 1993, she united with Emmanuel Tabernacle under the pastorage of Founder Bishop Jeffery D. Goldsmith. Janice sung in the church choir and served on the Usher Board. Janice loved the Lord and she was a true, faithful woman of God.

Janice was preceded in death by her parents, Otis and Frankie Goldsmith; grandparents, Reverend Frank and Phoebe Mosley; one sister, Alice Goldsmith Cobb; two brothers, Richard Goldsmith and Claude Hurst.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her two sons, Kedric Vick and Kyland Goldsmith, both of Oklahoma City; four sisters, Carol Goldsmith, Ruth Ann Goldsmith Benford, both of Oklahoma City; Lorraine Thomas of Chicago, Illinois; and Brenda Arnold of Texas; five brothers, Frank Odean Goldsmith (Judy), Vernon Goldsmith (Maria), Jeffery D. Goldsmith (Regina) Kenneth Goldsmith, all of Oklahoma City; and Otis Goldsmith, Jr. (Mildred) of California; five grandchildren, Kedrianna, La'Trell, Kedric Jr., Kaidis and Kyleah; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Heart To Heart

My sister Janice, you will always be in my heart;
It is difficult to imagine that we will be apart.

We were always together and traveled near and far;
You are no long here physically but you will always be my shining star.

You were very knowledgeable and always gave me good advice;
You allowed your children to be a huge part of my life and that was really nice.

You were a lively, active person, always ready for an adventurous day;
Later in your life when your health began to fail,
You tried not to let it get in the way.

We were very close sisters with a bond that will never end;
We share an everlasting love heart to heart,
And you will always be my true friend.

You were a sweet and caring person with a deep concern for the well being of others and what they were going through;
You were always ready to help and loved to surprise people with what that needed most, and you did all you could do.

You took a part of my heart with you,
And with you it will always stay;
I look forward to reuniting with you in Heaven one day.

I Love You Janice,
Your Sister Carol
