Obituary

Loyce Earl Henderson, Jr. was born on September 8, 1956 to Loyce Earl Sr. and Eddie Faye Henderson in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He was the second of four children.

Loyce attended Dunjee and Star Spencer High School. He was employed at BFI Waste Management. He also worked as a farmer, brush hogging and plowing.

Loyce Earl accepted Christ at an early age. He was baptized at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Spencer, Oklahoma. Later in life, he renewed his membership back to Emmanuel Baptist Church in Spencer, Oklahoma.

Loyce Earl met Vanessa Watson and to that union they had two children: Loyce Earl Henderson, III and Tiffany Chanelle Henderson.

“Cisco” loved communicating on his CB, earning him that nickname. His other hobbies were hunting, fishing, cock fighting and “Loved” spending time with his grandchildren. He also was the President of the Eastside Junior Roundup Club, where he conducted meetings and was a Bullrider up until his accident in the early 80’s.

May 16, 2014, Loyce Earl Henderson, Jr. departed this life. He leaves to cherish his memory, his parents: Loyce and Eddie Faye Henderson, Sr.; his siblings: Jackie (Lionell) Crooks of Del City, Oklahoma, Shari Cooper and Lolita Kaye Payton, both of Spencer, Oklahoma; his children: Loyce Earl Henderson, III and Tiffany Chanelle Henderson; grandchildren: Kaseon, T’Karryon, T’Keviyon, Atalya, Malachi, Malik, Tayevion and (Terrell preceded him in death); and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
