

Obituary

Gernemer Johnson “Mama” “Granny” was born December 10, 1933 in Chickasha, Oklahoma to Minnie and William P. Staples. She was preceded in death by her parents and sister, Odessa Wilson.

She attended Lincoln High School in Chickasha, Oklahoma. In her adult life, she moved to Oklahoma City where she worked for University Hospital and Baptist Hospital. She later worked for the Sheraton Hotel in Banquet Services.

Gernemer owned and operated several restaurants in the Oklahoma City area before she retired.

Many relatives and friends knew and loved her. She was very caring and always willing to give of her time or help anyone she met who was in need. Her need to nurture and protect her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren was endless.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory; two daughters: Wynema Ra (Tatenn) and Lynema Johnson; five grandchildren: Darrell Johnson, Pete Johnson, Isneitha Ra, Andromeda Ra, Delana Johnson; nine great grandchildren; her best friend, Bessie Hans; niece, Sharann Wilson of Denver, Colorado; Ebony Francis of Denver, Colorado; and a host of family and friends.
