

Obituary

Tyrone David Stamps was born October 28, 1951 to Eddie and Gladys (Hubbard) Stamps at Tinker Air Force Hospital in Midwest City, Oklahoma. He was the fourth of seven children.

Tyrone accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a very early age and attended St. John Missionary Baptist Church. He graduated from Northeast High School and received many honors and excelled in math and science. Tyrone received numerous scholarships in science including one from Princeton University but opted to further his education at Oklahoma State University and Langston University. His interests included technology, history, science, but his passion was his love for his family.

Tyrone devoted the last ten years of his life to caring for loved ones, especially his father.

Tyrone is preceded in death by his mother, his sister, Gwendolyn Stamps (infant), and his brother, Edward B. Stamps. He leaves to cherish his memory; his father, Eddie Stamps; his siblings: Peggy Murrell (James), Arnold "Ernie" Stamps, Sherri Williams (Wendell), Lynda Stamps; a dear sister-in-law, Essie Stamps (Edward); and many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
