

Obituary

Kim Yvette (Wade) Rich was born May 19, 1961 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Willie M. and Joyce M. Wade. Kim was the youngest of six children.

Kim attended the Oklahoma City Public Schools until the family moved to Wichita, Kansas where she lived and attended school until returning to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where she graduated from Douglass High School. Upon graduation, Kim attended and graduated from Draughton's Business College.

Kim met and married Paul E. Rich. They have three beautiful daughters: Kamee, Pashonna and Zsiana.

Kim worked at the Family Medicine Clinic until she was employed by the State of Oklahoma, where she worked at the Employment Security Commission in Tax Compliance until her recent passing.

Kim accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of the Greater Cleaves Memorial C.M.E. Church where she often worked in the kitchen because she loved cooking.

Kim was preceded in death by her mother, Joyce Moreland Wade; her sister, Pamela Joyce Johnson; and a brother, Terry Lamont Broughton.

Kim leaves to cherish her memory, her three daughters: Kamee Horton (Patrick), Pashonna Rich, Zsiana Rich and one very special son, Marcus Smith, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; her father, Mr. Willie Wade (Martha) of Wichita, Kansas; three sisters: Sharon Hoover, Mandy Carol Ford and Sonja Stull (Gordon); three grandchildren: Miyahl, Shiloh and Malaysia; several aunts and uncles and a host of other relatives and friends.
