

Obituary

Clyde Leon Ables Sr. was born May 30, 1925 to Bertha and Willie R. Ables in Guthrie Oklahoma. Clyde was preceded in death by his parents Willie and Bertha, a brother Willie Ables, sister Sequeta Dickson, and sister Velda Brown.

Clyde began his early education in Guthrie Oklahoma graduating from Favor High School. He graduated from Langston University with a Bachelor of Arts. Clyde taught primary education in Pauls Valley, Davis, and Duncan Oklahoma. Clyde furthered his career as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) compliance officer for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) from which he retired in 1983. Clyde served in the United States Army with honorable discharge and was a World War II veteran.

Clyde married Gwendolyn Moreland June 16, 1951. To this union two sons were born Clyde Jr. and George Cedric. Gwendolyn preceded him in death in June 2003.

Clyde was a faithful member for over 40 years of Trinity Presbyterian Church until his health failed in 2012. Clyde was a member of the Guthrie Gentlemen's Club, an avid fisherman, and had a love of nature.

Clyde leaves to cherish his memory, sons Clyde Jr. (Brenda), George (Wendy), five grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, brother Waylan (Betty), sister Coweta Smith, brother-in-law Adolf Brown, brother-in-law George Moreland (Claudia), Anna bush, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.