Our Love For Our Big Brother

We were young when you went away
Your smile your face still has its place
Your mother will be waiting with a smile on her face
Saying come home son I saved your place
Although your gone and your face we wont see
But look here big brother your finally free
Your place is now with mother as you see
Fly big brother you're free you're free
