

Obituary

Rodney Bernard Hines, II was born on September 3, 1989 to Rodney and Jana Hines in Oklahoma City, OK. He was the first born of twins to this union.

Rodney was preceded in death by his grandfather, Javan Holmes, Sr.

He attended elementary school in Oklahoma City and Del City, OK. He graduated from Midwest City High School in 2007, where he received his certification in paint and body. In the fall of 2007, he attended Langston University, Langston, OK.

Rodney loved his family and "life". He was what you would call the class clown. He loved his name. His famous words were "I'm a Hines and that's all people need to know." He also loved quoting scriptures. He loved grilling, cooking, as well as rapping. Just this year he found his passion for fishing.

Rodney leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Rodney and Jana Hines; his twin sister, Brittney D. Hines; one nephew, Nehemiah Spears; grandparents, Carl and Narviree Hines, and Mary E. Holmes; great-grandmother, Lucille McCormick; godmother, Vickie Thompson; god-grandmother, Mae Jones; god-sisters, Shonna Jones and Shay Nolan; god-brother, JR Nolan; god-nephew, Kaelob Nolan; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

