

Kaymah H. Warner

Kaymah H. Warner was born in Boston, MA on September 22, 1970 to Bennie and Anna Warner, the second of four children. She attended Isaac A. Davis School and JJ Roberts United Methodist School in Monrovia, Liberia; Price T. Young Middle School in Marshall, TX; Graduated from Millwood High School in Oklahoma City, OK and matriculated to Tuskegee University in Tuskegee, AL.

Kaymah was baptized by the Rev. Dr. Bradford Bryout at the United Methodist Church of All Nations in Boston, MA as an infant. After relocation to Oklahoma, the Warner family united with Quayle United Methodist Church in Oklahoma City in 1982, where her father served as pastor. Kaymah accepted Christ at an early age and was active in the Youth Ministry and Youth Choir. She participated in the Oklahoma United Methodist Annual Conference's UNDC (United Nations/Washington DC) tour as a youth representative from Quayle. She continued her ministry to the Lord by singing in the Mass choir and as a dedicated member of the United Methodist Women. While maintaining membership with Quayle, Kaymah was a devoted daughter and supported her parents in their ministry and assisted them in the many churches they pastored. Kaymah worked as an accountant in the insurance field; most recently, as a document indexing specialist-a role she relished.

Kaymah was exceptionally generous, thoughtful and kind. She loved her "little ones"; and to a score of nieces, nephews and godchildren, she was their favorite. Everyone was drawn to her vivacious and spontaneous nature as well as her fun loving and light hearted view of the world. Kaymah's fashionista status was legendary and she could always be counted on to know what was on the horizon before anyone else.

Kaymah passed away peacefully after a brief illness in Oklahoma City, OK on Wednesday, August 13, 2014. Kaymah is survived by her parents, Bishop Bennie D. & Anna H. Warner; sister, Mardea Warner; brother, Bennie D. Warner Jr. (Cheri); brother, Philip Warner (Andrea); a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives.

