

Obituary

The oldest boy of six children, Robert William Barnes was born May 18, 1949, to Sam Daniels and Frankie Barnes in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Preceding him in death are his parents, Frankie Barnes and Sam Daniels; his guardian, Lesi Mae Bradley; one sister, Leniece Russell; grandfather, Frank Barnes Sr.

Robert graduated from Douglass High School. Upon graduating, he was drafted into the United States Army where he served in the Vietnam War. After returning home from Vietnam, Robert helped his mom raise his three younger siblings.

Robert was a member of Saint Mary's C.M.E. Church until he was called home. Robert had a host of names he was so lovingly called, "Geezer, Brother, Uncle Rob, and Uncle Pokie," because he was sooooo slow. Now he has gone home to rest with the angels. He will truly be missed, but always and forever presence to all who knew him.

Robert is survived by one daughter, Raven Barnes (Daryl); grandson, Darielle Ingram; two brothers, Forrest Huddleston and Arthur Jones; three sisters, Carla Jones, Marquita Jones-McGary (Billy), and Marsha Daniels, all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; grandmother, Alice Barnes of Fort Worth, Texas; special and long time friend, Patricia Jones; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
