

Welcome To Heaven

Phillippians 3:20-21

But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Savior. He will take our weak mortal bodies and change them into glorious bodies like his own, using the same power with which he will bring everything under his control.

Obituary

Patsy Ruth Cannon (Pat), was born January 14, 1942 in Jefferson, Texas to Blanche Bailey and Dave Perkins. She later moved to Oklahoma, where she received her education at Arcadia High School and Rose State College; and served as a nurse for over 20 years.

Patsy married Maurice Cannon in 1961, and they spent 40 years in love before his death in 2001. After the passing of her husband, Patsy continued to pour all her time and energy into raising her three children and grandchildren. Her family was the center and love of her life.

Patsy enjoyed traveling, cooking, pampering herself, and watching football. She was known for being as sweet as honey, but could be as feisty as a firecracker, especially in the face of injustice. Patsy also loved animals and enjoyed caring for her three dogs: Lil' Lily, Hershey and Jaylen.

Patsy lived life to the fullest and in passing she leaves, her daughter, Angela Burdine and two grandchildren, E'Lescia Burdine and Aaliyah McCullough; her sons, Sean Cannon, his wife Patrice Cannon and two grandchildren, Cambrie and Brianna Cannon; Patrick Cannon, his wife Tina, and two grandchildren, Cory Beals-Cannon and Addison Beals-Cannon. She also leaves two siblings: Gloria and Buddy; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Patsy was preceded in death by her mother, Blanche Bailey; her father, Dave Perkins; and her siblings: Norris and Doan.

*Weeping may endure for a night,
but joy cometh in the morning.*

Psalms 30:5

Legacy Of Love

*A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength; you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife, not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.*
