Randal Van Warren

His Life Story.....

On March 4, 1963, Juanita House Williams and Willis D. Warren welcomed into this world the only child born to this union Randal Van Warren in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Randal began his education at the Langston Elementary until the 8th grade. After graduating from Langston Elementary, he attended and graduated from Coyle High School Class of 1981. Randal, but most called him "Randy" was a member of the historic 1979 Class "B" championship team. He attended Eastern Oklahoma State College in Wilburton, Oklahoma on a basketball scholarship and became a member of the Beta Epsilon Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated at Langston University in 1983.

At an early age, Randy was baptized at Mt. Bethel Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor James H. Davis. Throughout his life he was committed to helping others. Randy served on the Langston City Volunteer Fire Department for many years. He truly loved life and lived his life to the fullest through his kind and giving heart.

Randy married Allison Dotson of Alma, Arkansas and to their union they were blessed with three children Kenyon, Kessia and Kamell. Randal later met Sheary Johnson and had one son Jerrick Warren. Randy loved her two other sons Emrick and Jevon as if they were his own. Not only did they love and adore him but all the children in the Langston community loved and respected the gentle heart of "Uncle Randy".

Before returning home to Langston, Oklahoma Randal was employed with Tyson Foods, Inc. in Springdale, Arkansas for many years. He worked for Aramark, Habitat and Sodexo as a maintenance worker at Langston University with more than twenty years of service.

On May 23, 2019, the voice of the Lord called Randal Van Warren to come home. Meeting him at the great celebration were his maternal Grandparents, John and Jeanette House, Stepfather Robert Crawford and two siblings Carmella and Albert Leon, Jr.

He leaves to celebrate his life; his four children: Kenyon, Kessia and Kamell Warren of Ft. Smith, Arkansas; Jerrick Warren of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Mother Juanita Williams Crawford of Moore, Oklahoma; Father Willis D.(Beverly) Warren of Norman, Oklahoma; seven siblings Sharon Williams-Harris of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Milton Williams of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Charmonia Odom of Williamsburg, Virginia; Inga Underwood of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Alicia Williams-Sumlin of Langston, Oklahoma and Orlando (Jennifer) Williams of Moore, Oklahoma; Angelia Bassett of Norman, Oklahoma; nine grandchildren; best friend Reggie Love and a host of family and many friends.
