Julia Ann Ballard-Collins

Julia Ann Ballard-Collins was born September 30, 1933 in Clearview, Oklahoma. She was the third child of sixteen born to Hollie B. and Ora Lee Collins.

Julia moved to Oklahoma City at the age of seventeen during this time she was employed at the historic Kip's Cafe in Oklahoma City. Later, she enrolled in school and received her cosmetology license, rendering server to her family and friends.

Julia married Theophilus G. Ballard Sr., and to this union seven children were born: Bertha, Theophilus Jr., Michael (deceased), Kenneth, Phyllis, Julia and Melia.

Julia was employed as a domestic worker for many years and then she joined in with her husband in running the family auto detail business. Julia then worked for the Oklahoma County Home and Hospital and retired from Tinker Air Force Base with twenty-one years of employment. After retirement, she worked a long side her children and grandchildren in the family roofing company (Ballard Roofing L.L.C.).

Julia gave back to many, sharing her many gifts by cooking for someone in need, helping the elderly in the community and extending her wisdom. She was well known by her family and friends for her love of fishing. She made her own secret bait, weights and had her own worm farm. She was very competitive at the dominos table and enjoyed lawn and gardening.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of New Chance Missionary Baptist Church as the Church Secretary which she served until her health failed.

Julia was preceded in death by her parents, eight siblings and one son Michael.

Julia departed this life on June 1, 2019. She is survived by her children: Bertha Lee (Rudell), Luther, Oklahoma, Theophilus Ballard Jr. (Gayle), Oklahoma Citt, Kenneth Ballard (Teresa), Edmond, Oklahoma, Phyllis Gilbert (Harland), Harrah, Oklahoma, Julia Jacobs (Walter), Midwest City, Oklahoma, and Melia Robertson (Jermie), Edmond, Oklahoma; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren, seven siblings, and a host of relatives and friends.
