Obituary

Johnnie “Jeanette” Sharp was born to Robert and Ruth Long on July 3, 1937. She was the second child of a sibling group of four in Ada, Oklahoma.

Jeanette professed her life to Christ at an early age; she attended “Faith, Hope and Love” under the guidance of the late Reverend Dallas.

In 1955, she graduated from Douglass High School and soon after that, she briefly attended Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri.

Jeanette went on to marry Norris Sharp and started a career at General Electric. She then went on to work for Weokie Credit Union, as well as the Oklahoma Credit Union before retiring.

Jeanette was a wonderful woman that was loved, and will be deeply missed and will always be cherished.

Our “Aunt Net”, as she liked to be called by her nieces and nephews, was known for her loving, giving spirit along with a feisty strong spirit to “tell it like it is”. She was best known for her exquisite taste in all things such as fashion, because whatever she wore, she wore it well. She not only would stand up for herself, but she will also stand on the side of righteousness. She would be a nurturer or instantly your protector - she wore many hats. She was known to be quick-witted and could hold her own. She was filled with gratitude for God’s good gifts. Her heart is ruled by peace of contentment. She had the power to influence and inspire because she lives under the Spirit’s control.

Her parents and her husband preceded her in death. While she leaves her sister, Bobbie Oquinn; brothers, Larry Long (Ann), Robert Long Jr. (Ronnie), and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
