Obituary

Maurice Seay was born in Dallas, Texas on March 2, 1950, to Maurice Seay and Georgia Mae Seay. He was the second child born to this union. Maurice, also known as “Butch” or “Macho Man”, attended Dallas Public Schools. He later relocated with the family to Oklahoma City in 1969.

He was united in Holy Matrimony in 1979 to Ladonna Nunley. Maurice and Ladonna blissfully celebrated 40 years of marriage. He also had one faithful son, Maurice Seay Jr.

Maurice received Christ as a young adult under the leadership of his brother, the late Elder Charlie Johnson at Inspirational Temple. He was faithful to the church, never missed a day, and was known for making something out of nothing to feed all individuals during the feeding ministry. Maurice was also a dedicated worker at Quality Care Childcare as a cook for 9 years until his health failed him.

Maurice was passionate about his family and always enjoyed family time. He had a strong love for music, dancing, cooking, dominoes, and playing computer games. Maurice had a green thumb and thoroughly enjoyed planting and gardening in his free time.

Maurice is preceded in death by his mother Georgia; father Maurice; sisters: Tommie and Joyce; five brothers: Eddie, Charlie, Larry, Ray and Johnny; one son Ronyell Bethany. He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife Ladonna Seay; one son Maurice Seay Jr.; two brothers: William Seay and Willis James Seay; two grandchildren: Aujanæ Seay and Maurice Seay IV; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute To My Love

In Search of A Rose

I've searched for the rare and beautiful black rose'
I've crossed valleys where the coldest wind blows'
I've climbed mountains so high it took my breath.'
I've swam the deepest sea that has no depth'
Then I saw my rare and beautiful black rose'
As lovely as an angel descending from heaven'
Hair black as night, eyes like pearls from the mother land in africa'
The scent of your body like the honeysuckle in spring'
Your beautiful smile caused my pendulum heart to swing'
I knew then, it had to be you La Donna Sue'
