Obituary

Dianne Henderson-Lovelace was born on August 1, 1953 in Lexington, Mississippi. She was the 7th of 12 children. She was preceded in death by her father Arthur Henderson and brother Warren C. Henderson. After moving to Oklahoma City, Dianne completed high school at Douglass High School in Oklahoma City and college at the Oklahoma School of Banking and Business.

Dianne was employed after graduating college at Oklahoma Municipal Courts as a Supervisor and later at Tinker Air Force Base in which she retired as a Secretary.

Dianne met and married Kenneth Lovelace in 1987, into this union were 4 stepchildren. They remained married until her death.

Dianne was a loving daughter, sister, aunt, stepmom, and grandmother. She was always willing to help out in anyway she could. She often gave advice that would help and encourage you to feel better or make the right decisions. She loved to talk about God and the Bible. Dianne joined Mt. Elam in August of 1987, where she was a member until the closing of the church. Dianne had a love for gardening, cars, cooking and she loved to entertain. She had a way of turning nothing into something. Dianne had a way of not letting anything stand in her way of her goals that she was trying to achieve. She was a real go getter and often helped others to reach their goals as well.

Dianne leaves to cherish her memories; her mother, A.C. Henderson of Oklahoma City; sisters: Maxine Loggins of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Arian Franklin of Choctaw, Oklahoma, Elizabeth Bruner of Oklahoma City; Imogene Ekpo of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Williella Loggins (Derwin) of Spencer, Oklahoma; brothers: Clea Arthur Henderson (Ann) of Oklahoma City, Willie Henderson (Rebecca) of Oklahoma City, Calvin Henderson (Rose) of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Robert Henderson of Del City, Oklahoma, and Gerone Henderson of Oklahoma City; stepsons: Kenneth Lovelace and Robert Lovelace; stepdaughters: Marla Duley and Felecia Lovelace-Gordon; brothers-in-law: Fred Thomas (Kelly) of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Clyde Carter (Linda) of Kansas City, Missouri; sisters-in-law: Antoinette Hardman (Clyde) of Norman Oklahoma and Clara Brown of Kansas City, Missouri. She also leaves to cherish in her memories, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, grandchildren and friends.

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you. I go and prepare a place for you. I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also. - John 14:1-3
