A Poem For Mary Hudson

A beautiful garden now stands alone,

Missing the one who nurtured it.

But now she is gone.

Her flowers still bloom.

And the sun still shines.

But the rain is like a teardrop for the one left behind.

The weeds lay waiting to take the garden's beauty away.

But the beautiful memories of it's keeper is in our hearts to stay.

So much love she would plant with each little seed.

But just like her flowers, she was of God's plan.

So when it was her time, He reached down His hand.

He looked through the garden searching for the best.

That's when He found Mary Lee, it was her time to rest.

It was hard for those who loved her.

But God had a spot in His garden that needed a gentle soul.

So when you start missing Mary Lee,

Remember, if you just wait,

When God has a spot in His garden,

She'll meet you at the gate.

I Love You!
