

My Sissy Tillie - I love you so much and I will never forget you. All my life you have been there for me. I can't believe you're gone. I will always love you.

T - Too Beautiful Tillie - "Mrs. Cecilia"

My Sista For Real!

Love,
Her Sissy,
Tyjuana Spicer

I love you more
Than words can say
And if I lose you to the Lord I pray
to be with you for eternity
Forever and ever
Just you and me.

Daughter,
Michelle Puckett

Obituary

Down in Wewoka, Oklahoma, a beautiful, sweet soul, Cecilia (lovingly known as Tillie) was born on November 12, 1948. She was born with a heart that could be felt by everyone who met her. She spent her early years strongly exerting her love for family and FRIENDS, and her beautiful black skin. As a thirteen year old, she lost her mother Dora Davis; and in 2013, her beautiful first born daughter Angela Renee. Her strength as a beautiful black woman helped her press through school at Douglass High School and on to college at Langston University where she pledged Delta Sigma Theta.

Soon after leaving college, Tillie married Norman Puckett and birthed her three daughters. She spent her career as an employee for AT&T serving in several roles that allowed her to see beautiful parts of our country, including Memphis, TN and Pensacola, FL. She got up early every morning before work and beat her face to enhance the beauty she had naturally received from God. Cecilia retired from AT&T as an Operator.

Her life revolved around sharing kindness and blessing others with her immeasurable generosity. From sharing ceramics to sharing healthy living tips, Tillie had creative ways to touch people's lives. This was just her way of showing the love Christ has for her to others. Meeting her with a genuine heart meant having a friend for life. She's smiling down on you - on us!

Cecilia had a congregation waiting to meet her when she crossed to the eternal: Mother, Dora Davis; father, Joe Manuel; sisters, JoAnna Hall, Doris Manuel, and Ida Mae Adams; brother, Calvin Manuel; daughter, Angela Currin; grandson, Timothy Wright; and her niece, Davina Murrell; and nephews, Paul and Marvin; her best friend and sister-in-law, Teresa Davis met her with open arms and a smile too.

Tillie left to cherish her memory, brothers, Zenephor Overstreet, Orvil Davis (Beulah), and Ceasar Davis; sisters, Janna Calloway (James - Killa), Shirley Perry (Fred), Betty Newton (John), and Rosalee Williams; daughters, Catherine Givens (Dustin) and Michelle Monique Puckett; thirteen grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren, and a bang of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
