

Matthew 11

28 "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Remembering our Angel, Caleea Watson-Davis

Caleea L. Watson-Davis was born to us on March 3, 1986. Her life allowed her to travel around the world many times. She entered this world in Royal Oak, MI. During her first years of life, military efforts took her and her family to various places around the world. Throughout these moves, Caleea met people from many races, cultures and lifestyles. These experiences had a profound impact on who Caleea is to her family and friends.

After graduating high school, Caleea embarked on a military career that spanned almost 12 years. During her military career, Caleea served tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan and settled in Killeen, TX before separating from the military in 2016. Two years ago, she moved to Oklahoma City and worked as a corrections officer for the Oklahoma State Corrections Department.

Caleea's best and most loving work was as a mother to her three children. She leaves behind her teenage son, DeAndre and twin boys, Demarcus and Amari. Caleea loved her mother, Sonya Watson, who she was closer than close to in spirit, proximity and love. Caleea had a strong relationship with her stepfather, Riley Walker, who also served in the military.

Caleea, by an untimely departure from this life, leaves behind her three young sons, DeAndre, Demarcus and Amari. She is also mourned sorrowfully by her mother, Sonya Watson and stepfather, Riley A. Walker. Including her biological father, Jim Davis, Jr., Caleea leaves behind many, many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends too numerous to name here.

Caleea is many things to many people. What stands out to those who love her is how she cared for her children, her mama and Riley, her beloved Dallas Cowboys, and how she made us laugh.

Rest easy, Angel & Mama's Tweetie Bird.

A Psalm of David

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.*
- 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
3 He refreshes my soul.
He guides me along the right paths
for his name's sake.*
- 4 Even though I walk through the darkest valley,[a]
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.*
- 5 You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.*
- 6 Surely your goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
