

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Curren Sheffield, daughter of Rommie and Norman Hill was born July 5, 1941 in Fairmont, North Carolina.

Curren went to Rosenwald High School where she was in the band, was a Majorette and was Ms. Homecoming. After graduating from high school, she moved from Fairmont to Syracuse, New York where she worked at Bastal Laboratories for some time before relocating to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

While in Oklahoma, she met her loving husband of over 20 years, Mr. Clarence Sheffield, who preceded her in death.

While in Oklahoma, Mrs. Sheffield worked as an Administrative Assistant for many years at Kerr McGee. A determined, strong, yet gentle woman, Mrs. Sheffield enjoyed spending time with her family and taking trips with her church. She was not one who sat still for very long, and enjoyed spending time in her garden or simply getting out and about and enjoying life.

Mrs. Sheffield lived a life that is a great example of what a determined, hard working woman of faith can do. She was loved by all who knew her, and will be sorely missed.

She leaves behind one sister, Ellen Felton of Syracuse, New York. She was preceded in death by her sister Sheilon Hill and brothers, Jimmy, Norwood, and Jerome Hill. She also leaves behind her children, Tandra and Ricky Edwards, as well as five grandchildren, Jasmine, Shaniya, Elijah, Shal, Pash; one great granddaughter, Treasure; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Benediction and Closing Prayer ..... Elijah Crowder

To my mother who took care of us and nurtured us. We say thank you, thank you, for everything that you had to sacrifice to raise us who thought of her children before herself, because that's what good mothers do. Gave you some hard times but you still loved us. You never stopped being a mother all the way until God Almighty called you back to His throne. We just want to say; thank you mother for fulfilling your duty as a parent. You can rest now. Job well done! We love you and you'll be greatly missed. Praise God Almighty for giving us a mother like my mom and thank God Almighty for His mercy.

Loving Daughter,
Tandra Edwards

I thank God for my grandma. She helped my mom dress me when I was young. Through her did God bless us with a home and clothes on our bodies. Through God my grandma had the money to help us through our hard times.

I thank God Almighty for my grandmother.

Rest In Peace,
Elijah Crowder (a.k.a. Dabar)
