Obituary

George “Dewey” Berry was born to Margaret Turner and George Dewey Berry, Sr. in Rentiesville, OK on September 21, 1937. Dewey accepted Christ at a young age at Rentiesville First Baptist Church. Dewey was educated in Rentiesville Public Schools. After graduation he moved to Wichita, Kansas.

Dewey then moved to Oklahoma City where he met and married Gail Flowers on August 5, 1965. They celebrated 54 years of marriage. He worked for several years at Fred Jones Manufacturing Company. After leaving Fred Jones, he then went to work for Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation. He retired after many years.

After retiring Dewey would meet several of his buddies for coffee and “shooting the breeze” every workday morning. Dewey had several hobbies, they included dominoes, cards, playing pool, and riding his motorcycle. He and Gail joined the Magic Wheels Motorcycle Club in 1980. While being in the motorcycle club they traveled as far as Florida on the east coast to California on the west coast, and many states in between. He served as the president of the Magic Wheels Motorcycle club for a while. He was a faithful member of the motorcycle club until his health failed him.

He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. An example of his dedication to his family is he would take his granddaughter, Savannah with him to be with his buddies in the morning before taking her to school. He was a great provider for his family. He truly enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren.

Dewey joined the Greater New Zion Baptist Church in September, 2017 where he enjoyed fellowshiping with the members of the church.

Dewey was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Reginald Wayne Berry; one grandson, Raphael Bennett; seven sisters, Jessie Mae Palmer, Estelle Berry, Lula Mae Wright, Georgia Lee Hyman, Catherine Berry, Rozella McClendon, and Katie Berry; five brothers, Charlie Joe Berry, A. D. Berry, William Berry, James Nero, and Leroy Berry. He leaves to cherish his memory; his devoted wife, Gail Berry of the home; one son, Dwight Gardner; three daughters, Barbara (David) James, Rena Williams, and Terese Berry; one daughter-in-law, Sundra Berry; granddaughters, Whitney James, Natasha Nolen, Patricia (Danny) Hoffman, and Savannah Berry; four grandsons, David James II, Lloyd McCombs, Brandon James, and Reginald Wayne Berry, Jr.; five great-grandchildren, Aliyah Bennett, Giovanni Bennett, Addison Manuel, Ariella Hoffman, and Kyahna McComb. We would like to give a special thanks to LJ Starks, Darius Turner, and Don Henderson for the special care given to Dewey during his illness.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

*If Roses grow in Heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
place them in my Husband's arms
and tell him they're from me.
Tell him I love him and miss him,
and when he turns to smile,
place a kiss upon his cheek
and hold him for awhile.
Because remembering him is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.*
