

“Walk A Little Slower”

“Walk a little slower daddy” said a child so small.
I’m following in your footsteps and I don’t want to fall.

Sometimes your steps are very fast.
Sometimes they are hard to see.
So walk a little slower Daddy, for you are leading me.

Someday when I am all grown up
You’re what I want to be.
Then I will have a little child
Who’ll want to follow me.

And I will want to lead just right.
And know that I was true
So walk a little slower Daddy
For I must follow you.

Love, Brandon J. Farmer, Jr.

Obituary

God blessed this earth on November 7, 1993 by allowing the birth of Brandon Jamal Farmer, Sr. to take place in Oklahoma City, OK.

He attended Oklahoma Public Schools where he established and built many friendships. He attended Morning Star C.O.G.I.C. in Spencer, OK for fellowship and worship.

In addition to taking care of his family, he worked at Braum's as an esteemed employee.

He loved fishing, sports, playing dominoes, and grilling while kicking it with a cold beer in hand. Most of all he loved being with family and having a great time that allowed beautiful and precious memories to be made. Brandon was a gentle, considerate, and loving man. He was one who could be easily talked to and confided in; one who is loved by many and will forever be missed. Although he was quiet at time, most will miss his sayings as "On Me", "Already", "Yep", and "What's Poppin", just to name a few.

On September 28, 2019, Brandon was called home where he was embraced with open arms and the beautiful smiles of his grandmother, Linda Sue Farmer, and his cousin/best friend, Narada Smith, Sr., who preceded him into eternity.

Brandon left his memory to be cherished by his mother, Velisa Marie Farmer; sister, Tiffany Zekeri; son, Brandon Farmer, Jr.; daughter, Kamyra Henderson; girlfriend, Luvnique Lee; aunts: Angela McDaniel (Victor, LaToya Jackson, and Brian), Debra Farmer (Jeremy, Mariah, and Chyna), LaKita Benford (Ronnie, Aubryana Jones, and Xavier); nephews: Jayland Manual and Harvey Manual, Jr.; and a host of many other family and friends.
