Obituary

Jamie L. Miles was born on November 4, 1978 to Sandra Kay Edwards-Varnes and Clennon Ray Miles in Sulphur Springs, TX.

Later moving to Oklahoma in 1992, where she graduated from West Moore High School in Moore, OK. Shortly after, she received a certificate from Central State for Cosmotology. She continued her education, later receiving her Associates Degree in Medical Assisting/Phlebotomy with Office Management. At Platt College, she ultimately fullfilled her life long dream of becoming a Registered Nurse, receiving her degree from OSU-OKC.

Jamie’s greatest accomplishment was her beautiful daughter, Sharday Kayesha Doll Batts, whom she and Lawrence Batts took pride in raising into a very educated, independent, respectful young woman.

Jamie attended church at Northeast Church of Christ with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, and was later baptized and accepted Christ at St. John’s Baptist Church.

Jamie was a devoted and loyal mother, daughter, sister, and aunt. She truly lived life to the fullest. Jamie enjoyed the finer things in life, such as, shopping, vacationing, expensive cars, clubbing, and fine dining — all of what she would call “Popping”. Jamie had to have the best of everything. In these most recent days she had to have her ice cream everyday at 2:00 p.m.

Jamie also enjoyed sitting on the phone “gossiping” with her grandmother, Annie Mary Reynolds. Jamie would tell her all the family business. Her sister, Teresa, would call her jokingly “Barbara Walters” or “Madame Butterfly”. Jamie was simply a social butterfly who made friends everywhere she went. Because of that, her smile and laughter will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

Jamie was preceded in death by her grandmother, Annie Mary Reynolds; grandfather, Arthur Jimmy Sims; grandmother, Verda B. Miles; grandfather, Marvin Miles; father, Clennon Ray Miles; and nephew, Jamaris Miles.

Jamie is survived by her mother, Sandra Edwards Varnes; stepfather, Samuel D. Jackson; her fiance, Claude Carter; daughter, Sharday Batts; grandson, Dubai Long; two nieces, Tierra Miles-Ford and Teran Peace, who she loved like her own daughters; sisters: Paula McMiller, Teresa Miles, Chasity Miles, and Lekevia Jackson; brothers: Sheldon “Corey” Miles, Clennon Ray Miles, Jr., Samuel D. Jackson, Jr., Christopher Jackson, and Brian Jackson; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and one nephew who she held close to her heart, Montel “Beezy” Robinson, Jr.
