Obituary

Patricia Fuller was born July 23, 1950 to Frankie and Bernice (English) Fuller in Champagne, IL. At an early age, she professed her life in Christ. In 1978, Patricia joined Wildewood Christian Church and served as a deaconess.

Patricia graduated from Douglass High School in 1968. She attended Langston University and Central State University (Edmond, OK).

In 1975, she began her career as a cashier in the City of Oklahoma City Utilities Department. Later, she was promoted to the position of Rehabilitation Specialist. Before her retirement, Patricia became the first African American female Zoning Inspector.

In 1971, she married Tyrone Cole in Oakland, CA, while he was serving in the U.S. Navy. To this union, two children were born, Tammy and Jon.

Patricia leaves to cherish her memories, her husband of 48 years, Dr. Tyrone Cole, daughter, Tammy Galloway (Todd) of Desoto, TX, and son, Jon Cole (Washandra) of Lancaster, TX. Also, she is survived by her brother, Virgil Fuller. She was a loving grandmother to Ryan Cole, Bailey Galloway, Lauren Cole, Peyton Cole, and Kabreonna Jones. She will be remembered by a host of other relatives and friends.

Order of Services

|                        |                   |
|------------------------|-------------------|
| Opening Prayer .....   | Reverend Rodgers  |
| “Near the Cross” ..... | Sung by Gathering |
| Words of Comfort ..... | Reverend Rodgers  |
| Committal .....        | Reverend Rodgers  |

Near the Cross

Jesus, keep me near the cross,
There a precious fountain---
Free to all, a healing stream---
Flows from Calv’ry mountain.

Refrain:

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever,
Till my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.
