

That Moment You Died

The moment that you died
my heart was torn in two one side filled with heartache
the other died with you.

I often lie awake at night
when the world is fast asleep,
and take a walk down memory lane
with tears upon my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy
I do it everyday
but missing you is heartache
that never goes away.

I hold you tightly within my heart
and there you will remain until the joyous day arrives
that we will meet again.

Obituary

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: For the former things are passed away.

Revelation 21:4

Tyberia Brown, 91 years old, departed this life on October 14, 2019 at her home surrounded by much love from her devoted family. She was born the 4th child, January 1, 1928 in Ada, Oklahoma to the late Frank and Mary Brown.

Tyberia was baptized and accepted Christ at an early age of 10 at Bethlehem Baptist Church in Konowa, Oklahoma. She received her primary education from Grayson Elementary School in Seminole, Oklahoma and later high school studies at Booker T. Washington in Ada, Oklahoma.

As a young adult, Tyberia moved and settled in Oklahoma City. She was the proud and devoted mother of 5 children: Alvin, Tommy, Annette, Truman and Diana. She was a steadfast and affectionate mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, friend and worker.

Tyberia began her early career as a domestic engineer at the historical Skirvin Hotel of downtown Oklahoma City. She then changed her loyalties to St. Anthony's Hospital leading the team as a Production Linen Supervisor where she gracefully retired after 30 years of loyal service. After retirement, Tyberia passionately worked at Edwards Elementary serving children in her community in the cafeteria. None the less, while pursuing all these duties, Tyberia found time for several decades nurturing the Thompson family and fostering deep-rooted long lasting relationships with the parents as well as the children of the home. She cared for the family up until the age of 91.

Tyberia carried a heart of gold big enough to raise not only her own precious children but extended love unto grandchildren and the host of great grandchildren.

She always saw the best in people no matter what type of background they came from. Tyberia can be remembered as God fearing, forgiving, loving, honest, life living, vibrant, admirable, and a true listener and confidant. She gave wisdom and strength to her family when they couldn't find it for themselves.

Tyberia will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her. Tyberia enjoyed spending time with family and traveling. She lived life to the fullest everyday.

Tyberia was preceded in death by her three dear sons, Tommy E. Brown, Truman "Lucky" Brown and Alvin J. Brown; two loving older sisters, Earlene Brown and Nazaree Pierce; one endeared grandson, DeWayne Tarleton.

She leaves to cherish her memories two daughters, Annette Brown McNeil of Moore, Oklahoma; and Diana Dindy of Oklahoma City; one sister, Josephine Viney of Stockton, California; two daughters-in-law, Mary Brown (Alvin) of Kansas City, Missouri, and Kellie Washington (Tommy) of Oklahoma City; five special nieces, one special nephew, the pride and joy of her life nine grandchildren, and a host of great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
