Obituary

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. — II Timothy 4:7

On Wednesday, Fannie ended her battle with life and joined her husband, Ossie Hall, two sons, Joe Louis and Danny Nubine; and a brother, Kenneth R. Ellis with the Heavenly Father. She was the first born to Lizzie Ellis and Dan Nubine on January 4, 1945.

The family resided in Sand Town before moving to Walnut Grove. Fannie lived a Christian life under the leadership of Rev. W. A. Evans at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Oklahoma City, OK. She attended OKC Public Schools and graduated from Douglass High School in May 1964.

Fannie found an interest in Cosmetology and piano. She worked very well in the Community as a Beautician and a Piano Player for her family, church, and friends. She was a dedicated person and worked as a Domestic Engineer for many Motel-Hotel chains.

Fannie was a devoted mother for her two sons, Joe and Danny. She was a caring wife and loving grandmother to her eight grands and fifteen great-grands. Her life was about her family. She had a passionate heart of gold. Never saying “no” to anyone. She was a very good cook and was known for her sweet potato pies and dressing that no one was able to perfect.

Fannie will be missed and she leaves to cherish her memory, her mother, Lizzie Ellis; sister, Glenda Jackson; two brothers, Bennie Nubine and William Steve Ellis, all of Oklahoma City; daughter-in-law, Polly Nubine; eight grands: Shonda Nubine, Shwonda Nubine, Yalonda Nubine, Joe Louis Nubine, Fanisha Nubine, Gabrielle Nubine, and Polly Nubine, all of Oklahoma City, OK and Emery Faith Shockley of Jenks/Tulsa, OK; a Precious Aunt AutoMae Fletcher, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

What I think of You

Dear Great Grandma,
You were a good woman and you always been yourself. But now I know that you’re in heaven with your two sons, Joe L. Nubine, my grandpa, and Danny J. Nubine, my uncle. Now you can unite with your two beloved sons in heaven, where God is looking over you and your sons and your family on earth. When I saw you lying in that bed, I just couldn’t look; all I can do is cry, but now I know you’re not dead, you’re alive. Your life has started, now I know you walk the streets of gold, talking to God and talking to your sons. You are an angel, a dove, and a queen; and God has a crown waiting for you, too. And it does hurt me a lot that you are not here. I know that you are with us and me. If you heard this, Thank You!
I Love you Grandma

In Our Hearts

We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday, and the days before that too.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name, Now all we have is memoris,
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake,
With which we’ll never part,
God has you in his keeping
We have you in our heart.
Love You,
Sis. Pay
