Special Acknowledgements

Our family would like to acknowledge, with deep appreciation, the many calls, cards, food, florals, visits and comforting messages. Your kind deeds and expressions of sympathy during this time of bereavement are genuinely uplifting.

May God continue to bless each of you.

Our beloved mother, sister, daughter, grand-daughter, aunt, niece, friend, confidant and vibrant champion is gone in body, but the ripples her spirit and soul have caused in the world will not soon fade away.

Remembering Cheryl Obituary

Cheryl Johnson Bridgett was born September 12, 1959 to Louise and Harold Johnson in Medina, Ohio. She was loved and raised by her father, James (Mack) McMorris, for 50 of her 60 years of age.

Cheryl graduated Buckeye High School in Medina, and moved to Oklahoma City in 1980 at the age of 21 where she met and married Antone Bridgett. Both devoted themselves to laying a strong foundation and raising Cheryl's two daughters, Shavonne and Sharee. Cheryl worked most of her time in Oklahoma City at Leo's Supper Club, Leo's BBQ and HealthSmart Insurance. She loved to travel and had the opportunity to travel extensively (all over the United States, to London, Paris, Jamaica and Mexico).

Cheryl was extremely outgoing and gregarious; she enjoyed hosting fabulous parties, playing bingo and embarking on adventures and activities with her grandchildren, Da'Shavion, Saryiah and Vivienne. She loved all children and took in several. She had a caring soul, and was an undeniably selfless and generous person who would envelop as family anyone in need of help, home and support.

Vibrant and lively, Cheryl was a beaming beacon of sunshine. She was an eternal optimist who always had joy and laughter pouring from her soul. Hers is a radiance that will never dull and her life was one that profoundly positively affected many. She will be sincerely missed, forever loved and fondly remembered by all.

Cheryl was a wonderful woman with many good friends in both Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Medina, Ohio. She leaves to carry on her legacy and forever cherish her memory Daughters: Shavonne (Kevin) Correia of New York, NY, Sharee (Terry Reece) Johnson of Oklahoma City, OK; Mother: Louise, McMorris of Medina, OH; Sisters: Doris (Wayne) Chandler of Oklahoma City, OK, Karen Johnson of Medina, OH; Brother: Tony (Danna) Johnson of Oklahoma City, OK; Step-siblings: LaVonna (Alvin) Foster and Larry Thompson of Columbus, OH; Beloved Grandchildren: Da'Shavion and Saryiah Johnson of Oklahoma City, OK, and Vivienne Correia of New York, NY; Aunts: Barbara (Bobby) Hill of Birmingham, AL, Carol Robinson of Medina, OH; Uncles: Marcus Gant and Walker (Chuckie) Evans of Medina, OH; Nieces: Brandy Rogers (who affectionately coined Cheryl's endearing nickname of "Pookie") and Hannah Legleiter, both of Oklahoma City, OK; Nephews Kenny Rogers of Medina, OH, and Dean Legleiter of Oklahoma City, OK; hosts of Cousins, and Friends, including Special Friends, Shelia White and Rosalind Adams of Oklahoma City, OK, Charlotte Johnson of Florida, and Sarah Ross and Tasha Bush of Oklahoma City, OK. Preceded in death by Grandfather Winfield Gant, Father James McMorris and Uncles Rick Gant and Mike Gant.

Memories

God Saw

God saw you getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you,
as you slowly slipped away.
Although we love you dearly,
we could not make you stay.

And when we saw you sleeping,
so peaceful and free from pain,
we could not wish you back to suffer that again.

Your golden heart stopped beating.
Your hard-working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

- Adaptation of poem originally by Frances and Kathleen Coelho

HEAVEN IS Celebrating

"I love [those] who can smile in trouble, that can gather strength from distress, and grow brave by reflection. 'Tis the business of little minds to shrink; but he whose heart is firm, and whose conscience approves his conduct, will pursue his principles unto death."

- Thomas Paine
