

Road To Eternity

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet Eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know,
For some the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow.

But when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.

Obituary

Cathy Rochelle Watson was born on July 29, 1965 to Claude L. Williams and Betty J. Brown in Oklahoma City, OK. She was next to the third youngest of eleven siblings.

She accepted Christ at a young age and learned to spread His word and agape love with others. She later became a very strong and God fearing woman.

Cathy graduated from John Marshall High School in 1983 and then attended Beauty College. She married the love of her life, Cecil L. Watson on April 19, 1989. They raised three beautiful children: Jovon, Sabrina, and Nico, whom she loved dearly.

She owned and operated Tiny Tot’s Daycare for several years. She later worked for Williams Sonoma as a Customer Service Representative and then as a Materials Inspector for the Federal Aviation Administration Logistics Center where she retired.

Cathy later joined the Faith, Hope & Love Missionary Baptist Church, where she served as a faithful member, usher, member of the evangelism team, and president of the Spiritual Coordinators.

Cathy was a very classy lady who loved to look her best at all times because “[she] never knew who [she] was going to see.” Her two favorite hobbies were shopping and traveling. She was also a very kind and loving soul who never met a stranger. Cathy also loved spending time with family and friends, especially around the holidays — Christmas was her favorite and she captured every moment with a picture or videos.

Later in life, Cathy was blessed with five beautiful grandchildren, whom she believed were one of the best parts of her life. They called her “GiGi” and she showered them with love, joy, and happiness.

Five years ago, she bravely and humbly began to fight an endless battle with cancer as one of God’s warriors. Her faith and perserverance is what kept her strong. On November 24, 2019, Cathy was called home to be with the Lord. She will be loved and missed greatly by everyone who knew and loved her.

Cathy was preceded in death by her father, Claude L. Williams and two sisters, Birdie Mae Reed “Trixie” and Madgerine Jackson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her devoted husband, Cecil L. Watson; her children: Jovon, Sabrina, and Nico; her grandchildren: Aaliyah, Nilah, Bryah, Jasiel, and Mandell; her mother, Betty Johnson; her siblings: Harold Wayne Johnson (Niya), Cora Holt (Leo), Carl Reed, Tracey Birdine (Valerie), Jacklyn Bryant, Regina Williams, and Claudia Williams; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.
