Obituary

Otha Leon Crawford Sr. was born on December 12, 1954 to Otha Lee and Jaquine Crawford.

After graduating high school, he joined the United States Army in 1973, where he would be stationed at Fort Carson, and would meet the love of his life and mother of his children, Georgia Jones Crawford.

While serving in the army, Otha received many awards and commendations.

After leaving the army in 1986 to pursue his education in Drafting and Engineering, he put that degree to use at Lockheed in the field of Logistics.

After leaving Lockheed, he returned to federal service at the VA Hospital where he continued to work until his retirement in 2014. In his retirement, he enjoyed many endeavors with his grandchildren, including fishing, flying drones and remote control airplanes.

Otha is survived by his sisters, Shaneta Jackson and Ona McCormick; his children, Christine, Tenika and Otha Leon Jr.; his five grandchildren, Jense "Bubba", Bobby, "Stanka", Zhanice "Precious", Teniah "Sweetie Pie" and Otha Leon III "03". He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, countless other friends and relatives who were touched by his wisdom.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
