

“Blessed Assurance Lyrics”

*Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood*

Chorus:

*This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long;
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.*

*Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels, descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.*

*Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest,
Watching and waiting, looking above,

Acknowledgement

The family of Marie Jones would like to acknowledge the cards, flowers, prayers and thoughts given during their time of bereavement. A special thank you to her niece, Kay Harper, for her diligent, loving care that she provided for her aunt over the last several years. God bless you all.

Obituary

Marie C. Jones was born on September 11, 1937, to Lonnie and Lizzie Johnson in Watonga Hospital, Watonga, Oklahoma.

She attended school at Dunbar Grade and Senior High School. She graduated in 1955.

Marie accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of union Baptist Church in Watonga.

Marie enjoyed growing up with mom and dad and her many sisters and brothers. She was the tenth of eleven children. She loved children and after all, she had plenty of nephews and nieces to help raise, she loved every minute, spoiling them. Her mom and sisters taught her lots of things; the most Marie loved was cooking. Her mom also taught her to sew, and she really took to sewing and became a great seamstress, sewing for herself and others.

After graduation, she moved to Denver, Colorado to live with her brother Ken, to seek further education and employment. After a few years there, she decided it was time to come back home, In 1957, she returned home and with her she brought her niece Louise with her, they lived with her sister Margaret until she found work and her own place, there she took up nursing.

While in Oklahoma City, she met a handsome young man named Morse Jones. After a while of dating, they were married on April 17, 1960. He was a Airmen in the United States Air Force. They were stationed in many places. While being stationed in Denver, Colorado, they became parents to a baby boy named Keith.

Marie was so happy to be a mom. She love it more than anything, and you could tell by her actions. Keith didn't want for anything. While in Denver, she worked as a nurse, a job she so much loved, she like caring for others. The time came and they had to leave Denver, to be stationed in Texas, then on to Alaska, which they loved so much, they purchased a home there. They welcomed their second son Byron. They lived there long after Morse retired from the Air Force, and their sons graduated. They boys left after their senior years.

When Morse's health started failing, they decided it was time to return home to Oklahoma. They came back and bought them a new home where they intended to grow old in, they were happy to be back among family and friends.

Marie loved to entertain in her beautiful home, you were always welcome. Marie was a very fashionable lady in style. Her and Morse met so many friends along the way and kept in touch with many. She was a member of Quayle United Methodist Church.

Marie departed this life on November 11, 2019. She was preceded in death by her husband Morse, her parents Lonnie and Lizzie Johnson, her brothers, Lonnie Johnson Jr., Bobbie, Lenard, Kenneth Johnson, her sister Margaret Harris, Madge Curry, Edna Johnson, and Hester Harper.

Marie leaves to cherish her memory, sons: Keith Jones and Byron Jones; four granddaughters: Lovesta, Jasmine, Kashmere, Kahmaree; one grandson Daylon; seven great grandchildren: Tequoa, Jada, Reggie, Braylen, Nyah, Aaliyah, and Jaiden; one brother Roy Johnson (Margaret) of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one sister Nettie L. Way (Fred) of Dover, Delaware; two sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who were very special to her.
