

If I have helped somebody as I traveled along,
 Then my living has not been in vain.
 If I have helped somebody with a word of song,
 Then my living has not been in vain.
 If I have kept somebody from doing wrong,
 Then my living has not been in vain.

Obituary

Llwellyn Marie Harris "Cookie" was born on January 22, 1955 to Orville and Willie Joyce Harris in Holdenville, Oklahoma.

Llwellyn's mother, Willie Joyce, united in marriage to Talmage Webb, whom she affectionately called Daddy.

Llwellyn, better known as Cookie, accepted Christ at an early age at Fifth Street Baptist Church, under Reverend R. M. Leffall.

Cookie attended Creston Hills Elementary School and graduated from Millwood High School in 1973. Following high school, she married Terry Spinks and to this union her one and only son, Terrence T. Spinks, was born.

Cookie was employed by Suburban Graphics, Inc. for 15 years as a Graphic Printer. Cookie continued with the passion of her life "HAIR", as owner/barber/stylist until her health failed. She had a smile and laugh that would light up the room.

Cookie was preceded in death by her father, Talmage Webb; and two brothers, Darrell G. Harris and Jerry Lynn Harris.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Terrence T. Spinks, Sr. (Wanda) of Tulsa, OK; her mother, Willie Joyce Webb of Oklahoma City, OK; one brother, Orville Harris of Loveland, Colorado; six grandchildren: K'Lea, Terrence, Jr., Ta'Lea, Alyah, Laria, and Terine; one great-granddaughter, Zoraël; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

"She's in the Upper Room with Jesus, her Lord and her God."
