Obituary

Mrs. Harriet "Tunnie" Gaddis Booker was born on May 17, 1942 to Willie and Mobelia Gaddis in Oklahoma City, OK. She was the first born of the second set of twins (Howard).

She accepted the Lord and her gift at an early age — playing the piano by ear, embracing her gift. Harriet first began playing for her sisters, but her initial start as Minister of music began at Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church in Oklahoma City, OK. From there, Harriet continued to play for quite a few churches including Olivet Baptist Church, St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church, Antioch #2, Galilee Missionary Baptist Church, Dallas, TX, New Beginnings @ Mt. View, Dallas, TX, God's Chosen People, and New Covenant Missionary Baptist Church, to name a few. Throughout her career, she encountered a lot of people; her spirit and love for music spoke volumes through the way she played. You knew who the musician was without asking.

In 1958 she gave birth to a daughter, Sherry and by 1960 she had attended and graduated from Douglass High School in Oklahoma City. Then in 1976, she met and fell in love with Carl Booker. By 1979, they were married and living in Dallas, TX. In 1998, their family moved from Texas to Oklahoma and continued to serve until her health and family became a major priority in 2015.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Carl; both parents; six sisters; and three brothers.

Four grandchildren were raised by Harriet and three great-granddaughters currently lived with her.

Harriet's memory and legacy will live on through everyone she encountered.

Tunnie fought a good fight until she couldn't anymore and God called her home early Saturday, January 4, 2020.

She leaves to cherish her memory and legacy, her daughter, Sherry A. Dykes of Oklahoma City, OK; two grandsons, Everett Dykes of Oklahoma City, OK and Marshall Dykes of Killeen, TX; two granddaughters, Marika Dykes of Oklahoma City, OK and Harriet "Pookie" Smiley of Warr Acres, OK; five great-grandchildren: Carletta, Antwaun, Amaré, Teirrah, and Nevaih; three brothers: Howard Gaddis of Sayre, OK, Herbert "Joe" Gaddis (Judy), Eugene "Jimmie" Gaddis (Sandra) of Oklahoma City, OK; her god family, Mildred, Nicole, Kimberly, and James Holmes of Dallas, TX; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and more who loved and adored her. Truly missed, never forgotten.
