

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,*

I turned my back and left it all.

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with memories of joy,
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.*

All these things, I too will miss.

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow,
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Life and Legacy
of
Robert D. Johnson

Robert D. Johnson was born on November 20, 1952, to Bernice M. Johnson and Robert J. Johnson in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. With his energetic personality and ever-present smile, Robert truly embraced life and his family.

As a young man, Robert was baptized and obeyed the gospel at the Garden Oaks Church of Christ in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Growing up in Oklahoma City, Robert was educated in the Oklahoma City Public School System and graduated from Douglass High School in 1971. Upon graduation, he was trained by his father to become a mechanic and worked in the auto industry. He often repaired cars for free.

At an early age, Robert expressed an interest in sports. He was a member of his high school baseball team and later became a noted high school baseball player. As Robert matured his love for sports deepened as a spectator. He enjoyed watching baseball, football, and basketball and was an avid fan of the Oklahoma City Thunder.

Robert or Robbie as he was called by his family had many loves in his life which included music especially jazz and movies; however, they were all second to his love for his parents and family. Robert and his siblings unselfishly assisted his mother as she aged. He enjoyed traveling to Texas with his mother to visit family. He also enjoyed family gatherings, reunions and holiday celebrations.

Robert leaves to mourn his daughter - LaCresha Johnson Senter (Edward), his three sisters - Lovie Adams, Janice Foster, Glennetta Allen (Robert), his two grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother and both sets of grandparents.
