

More than just my "Sister"

You are more than just by "Sister"
 More than just my "Friend"
 I never thought your day would come so soon
 A precious young life has come to an end
 You were more than just my "Sister"
 More than just my "Girl"
 Last I remember it was you and me against the world
 You were more than must my "Sister"
 More than just my "Baby"
 Say anything bad about you
 Everyone knows that Donn Donn goes crazy . . .
 You were more than my "Sister"
 More than my "Heart"
 How do I breath knowing for now we are apart
 You were more than just my "Sister"
 Now one of God's chosen one
 You finally got your wings.
 "How they fit!" "My child well done!"

Loving you always and forever
"Donn Donn"

Obituary

Chakara Denise Redd “NeeCee” was born on November 23, 1988 to Gary Redd and Chiquita Redd at Tinker Air Force Base in Midwest City, OK.

Chakara was preceded in death by her mother, Chiquita J. Redd; one sister, Jocelyn L. Redd “Sissc”; one niece, Ja’Nae L. Hornsby “Queen”; grandparents, Charlie D. Phillips and A. J. LuGrand; one uncle, Brandon J. Phillips “Tod”; two aunts, Wyvonne Williams “Candy” and Diana Phillips; three cousins: Brandon J. Phillips “Lil Tonto”, Jean D. Harris “Pumpkin”, and Georgio Harris “Skiggy”.

NeeCee accepted Christ at an early age. Later in life NeeCee joined Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, where she was a member until her death.

NeeCee graduated from Millwood High School in 2007 and went forward and earned college credits at University of Central Oklahoma in Edmond, OK.

From 2004-2007, Chakara was a football trainer for Millwood High School and in 2007, she was a part of Millwood Falcon Football Championship Team.

Chakara was employed at ResCare as a manager doing what she enjoyed most — assisting clients to reach their goals.

Chakara enjoyed dancing, traveling, sports, and most of all loving on her family and friends.

On February 12, 2020, Chakara Redd departed this life and crossed over to eternity.

Chakara leaves to cherish her memory, her father, Gary Redd (Shirley) of Temple, TX; sister, Shequita D. Redd and dad, Corwin Pierre, both of Oklahoma City, OK; great-grandmother, Edna Turner; grandparents, Roy L. Redd, Kara and David Dixon, Annette and Tommy Johnson, all of Oklahoma City, OK; two brothers, Yaron and Corwin Pierre of New Orleans, LA; two special cousins, Lekita Wilson and Gwyenne Potts; five aunts: Jannette Rush, Denise Pierre (Renwick), Debra Redd-Carter, all of Oklahoma City, OK, Yolanda Johnson Pretflow (Rodney) of Douglasville, GA, and Caroletta Avriett of Tulsa, OK; three uncles: Gwyenne Phillips (Shanale) of Oklahoma City, OK, Joseph Rogins of Austin, TX, and Andreas Evans of Springfield, SC; two special sister friends, Kapri Washington and LaShayla Steele; along with a host of cousins and a circle of friends.
