Obituary

Suzie Ann Turner was born May 9, 1945 to Curtis and Olena Shavers in Foreman, Arkansas. She was the eldest of four siblings.

Suzie accepted Christ at an early age. She attended Foreman Elementary School and later Olena moved the family to Tulsa, Oklahoma. Suzie graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa, Oklahoma. After graduating and starting her young adult life, she moved to Oklahoma City where she met and married Frank Turner Sr., to this union two children were born, Frank Jr. and Cedric.

Suzie attended the Opportunities Industrialization Center and St. Anthony School of Nursing. She was a bright spirit, always smiling and willing to help others. Early in her new family life, she began working in the health care field at St. Anthony's Hospital. She had many interests such as traveling, sports, and arts and crafts.

After attending St. Mary's Church for a period of time, she joined in 1980, and became an active member of the church choir. She was very active in supporting her family taking vacations, family reunions and sporting events. Las Vegas was one of her frequent destinations. Suzie never met a stranger. She always greeted with a smile and "Hello." It was very important to her that everyone always had what they needed. She was also a great cook and made sure that every guest was fed. She took great pride at being a wife, mother, family members and friend. After many years as a Medical Records Transcriptionist, she retired from The Oklahoma County Health Department. After retirement, she was committed to caring for her mother and her grandchildren. She continued to live a full life enjoying all that she loved. She was a faithful and committed servant until the end.

Suzie Ann leaves to cherish her husband of 55 years, Frank Turner; sons: Frank Jr. and Cedric (Canita); stepdaughter, Chaquita (Lee) Fricks; siblings; brother, Curtis (Jackie) Shavers, and sisters: Frieda Shavers and Romonda (Jimmy) Damici; sister-in-law, Mary Barhm; grandchildren: Tamar, April, Cedric Jr., Chloe, Caleb, Faith, Christian, Toni and Tedrick; ten great grandchildren, and a host of extended family.
