Obituary

Dewey Eastman Drennon was born to Dorothy Lee Sharp and OC Drennon on February 10, 1953 in Ft. Hood, TX.

He graduated from Seminole High School in 1971. He later graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in Special Education from East Central University.

He met Lucille Overstreet in 1977. He owned Sound City Record Store in Shawnee until the birth of his daughter, Tinisha, in 1980. He then became a car salesman and worked at several car lots in Norman, OK and Oklahoma City, OK until he retired in 2015. Dewey enjoyed OU Football, jazz music, and spending time with his family.

Dewey was preceded in death by his mother, Dorothy Lee Sharp, and his sisters, Joy Sharp and Regina Sharp.

Dewey leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Lucille; his daughter, Tinisha Drennon; grandson, Seth Symes; honorary son, Justin Symes of Norman, OK; four sisters: Belinda Belton of Shawnee, OK, Cora Drennon of Shawnee, OK, Jeanette Drennon of Cedar Hill, TX, and Stephanie Hailemariam of Denver, CO; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

The Measure Of A Man

Not how did he die, but how did he live?
Not what did he gain, but what did he give?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
Not what was his station, but had he a heart?
And how did he play his God-given part?
Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not what was his church, nor what was his creed,
But had he befriended those really in need?
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
