Harry's Life Story

Harry C. Stanfield, known as “Chris” growing up was born third of five children, April 5, 1954 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Gwendolyn Williams and Harry Stanfield Jr.

Harry answered the Lord’s call on March 20, 2020 at Hillcrest South, Tulsa, Oklahoma where he transitioned from this earthly life and entered into eternal rest.

Harry attended Creston Hills Elementary and in Oklahoma City, Douglass High School.

He was married to Sharon Porter, and to this union came one daughter Gwendolyn Stanfield and two stepsons, Jerry and Anthony Acles. Later, he married Cheri Reynolds and to this union came two daughters, Cheria and Andrea Stanfield, and two stepsons, James and Anthony Walker.

Harry attended Redeemed by Grace in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Harry worked at Curtis Mathis as a technician, All American Janitorial Service (Owner), Harry’s TV Service (Owner), SBC marketing and from November 1996-2018, Perry Broadcasting; studied Criminal Justice/Law at national University (2011-2013), and was On Air Personality of the Year 2017-2018.

Harry loved roller skating (old school). He was an actor in many plays and TV shows: The Starring Match, JoAnn’s Struggling Soul, Sadies Coffee Shoppe, just to name a few. He liked watching Star Trek, Judge Judy, Judge Mathis, Perry Mason and Westerns. He was also a Dallas Cowboy Football fan.

Harry was preceded in death by his father, Harry Stanfield Jr., brother Robert G. McAllister, stepdad Robert “Bobcat” McAllister, sister Brenda K. Williams, and grandparents James and Jesty Williams.

Harry leaves to cherish his memory, his mother Gwendolyn McAllister, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; three daughters: Gwendolyn Stanfield Taylor (Rick), Arizona; Cheria “Nikki” Stanfield, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Andrea “Andi” Stanfield, Tulsa, Oklahoma; four stepsons: Jerry and Anthony Acles of Arizona; James and Anthony Walker of Tulsa, Oklahoma; one sister, Dondalier Barker (Ernest) of Oklahoma City; one brother, Victor McAllister of Oklahoma City; two ex-wives, his loving grandchildren, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and lots of friends.

"The Broken Chain"

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name,
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone.*

*For a part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide.*

And though we cannot see you

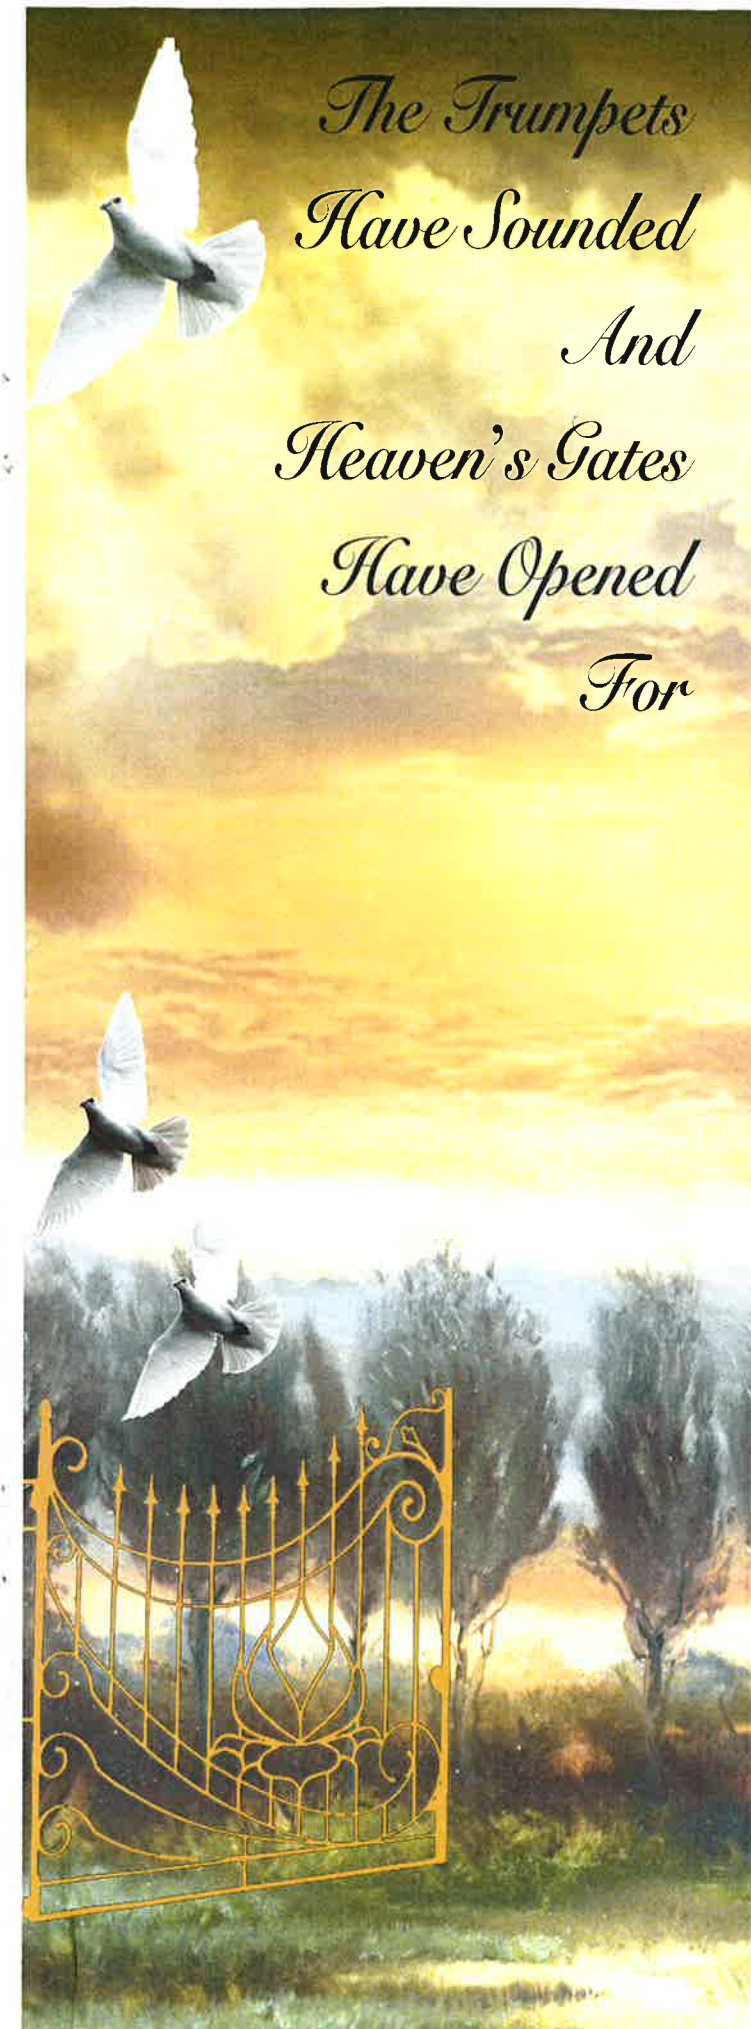

You are always by our side.

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same.*

*But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.*
