Acknowledgement

The Williams family wishes to express our sincere appreciation for your many acts of kindness.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there;
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not here at all, but just thought of us today.

Whatever, you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Obituary

John Henry Blunt-Williams (affectionately known as “Peppa”) was born to Birdie Marie Galbreath and Selma Blunt on January 22, 1944 in Hugo, Oklahoma. On July 29, 1950, Birdie Marie Galbreath married Willie James Williams who adopted, loved, and raised John Henry Williams as his very own.

John met his sweetheart, Ruby Williamson during his sophomore year at Douglass High School in Lawton, Oklahoma. Later, this led to their matrimony on June 1, 1963. To this union, four beautiful children were produced.

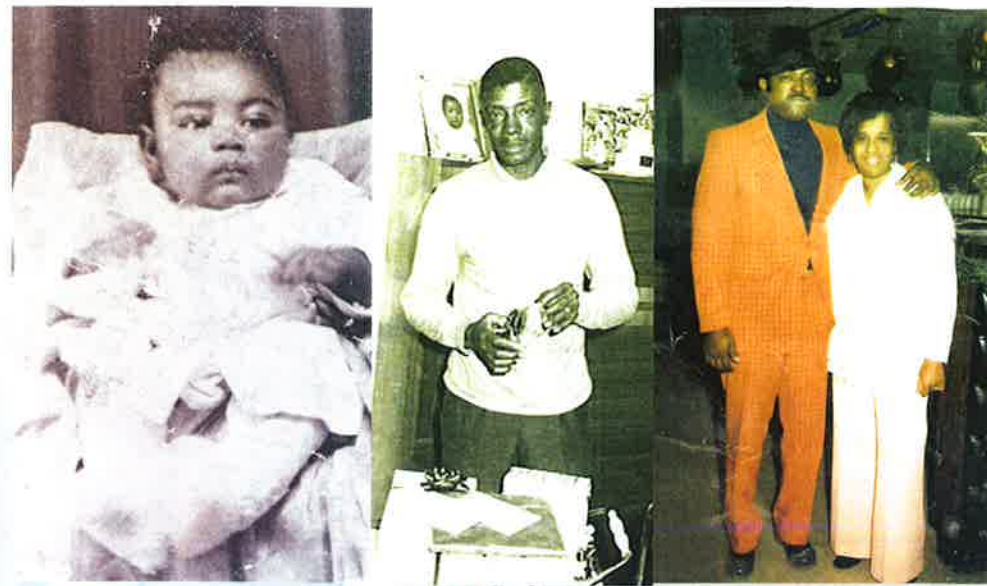

The life of John was filled with many accomplishments. John served in the United States Navy from 1963 to 1967. He was stationed on the USS America aircraft carrier at Norfolk Naval Station in Virginia. He was a veteran of the Vietnam War of and he was awarded the national defense service medal. In 1971, after finishing active duty, he moved his family to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. John attended college at the Oklahoma State University Technical Institute to pursue an Electronic Engineering degree. He provided 30 years of dedicated service, as an electronic engineer for Seagate Technologies Corporation.

John’s life was filled with joy. He enjoyed spending time with his family, dominoes (according to him he was a dominologist), Dallas Cowboys football, fishing, playing with his grandkids, cars and trucks, and making people laugh.

John was a member of Judah Christian Assembly under the leadership of Bishop Donald D. Woody Sr. He served on the deacon and trustee boards. John truly loved the Lord and his favorite scripture was Isaiah 40:31. He was a sharp dresser who took pride in his appearance. John mentored several men and was a faithful member until his health declined.

John was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, one brother (Willie J. Williams Jr.), and a great grandson (Orlando R. Maxie III).

He is survived by: his wife, Ruby Williams; one son, John Williams Jr. (DeAnna); three daughters, Regina Rivers (L.A.), Angela Maxie (Orlando Sr.), and Artesha Williams; two sisters, Thelma Hightower, and Sandra Williams; two brothers, Charles Williams (Zette), and Kevin Williams (Sherry); nine grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.
