

God Saw You Getting Tired

God Saw You Getting Tired

When a cure was not to be.

So He wrapped His arms around you,

And whispered, "Come unto Me."

You didn't deserve what you went through,

and So He gave you rest.

God's garden must be beautiful,

My prayers were manifest.

So when I saw you sleeping,

So peaceful and free from pain.

I could not wish you to come back, to suffer and complain.

In Loving Memory

Ethel Lee Hooks-Williams was born to Doris Jean Williams and James Arthur Hooks on November 9, 1962 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at University Hospital. Ethel was called by the Lord April 21, 2020. She was preceded in death by both of her parents, one sister Bertha Williams, two brothers, John Williams and Harry (Vernon) Williams, brother-in-law Willie Parker, her favorite niece Terrie (LaNette) Williams, and one nephew, Prentice Williams.

Ethel attended West Oak Elementary, and attended Crooked Oak for both middle school and high school where she was best known for her basketball skills and her unique personality. She fried the best chicken in the world, gave good advice to her family and was known to move many, many mountains. Ethel was the kind of person who got the party started. Her favorite saying was “what, what, what.”

Ethel leaves in loving memory her three children, Romika Williams, Quicney Zeigler and Zopon Williams; three grandchildren, Amia Williams, Nela Zeigler, and Jala Zeilger. Ethel was best known to her siblings as “Moose.” She leaves behind four brothers, Jessie J. Walker, John D. Washington, James E. Washington, Donald Ray Collier; seven sisters, Glenda Walker, Alice, Lambeth, Joyce Williams, Mary Williams, Gloria Williams, Princess Williams, and Jane Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and faithful friends.
