

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work or play
 Tasks left undone must stay that way.
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, HE SET ME FREE!

Obituary

Roosevelt Hogg, born June 9, 1942 in Doss, Louisiana to the union of Warren and Roberta Jackson-Hogg.

Roosevelt was united at an early age with the Salem #2 Baptist Church in Collin St. Louisiana under the leadership of Reverend R.S. Steward.

Roosevelt was united in holy matrimony on November 1961, to Victoria Hendrix-Hogg. To this union four children were born, two daughters and two sons.

Preceding Roosevelt in death were his loving parents, Warren and Roberta; his wife Victoria Hendrix-Hogg; four brothers, Leon Wade, Richard Hogg, Emeal Hogg, Warren Hogg Jr.; three sisters, Earlene Wallace, Ottie Mae Steward, Mattie B. Jordon; three grandsons, Robert Wright, Demouria Hogg, Darren Lamar Hogg Jr.

Roosevelt leaves to cherish his memories, two daughters, Berlinda Hogg-Smith, Vickie Hogg, all of Oakland, California; two sons, Roosevelt Jr. and Darren Hogg, both of Oakland, California; two sisters, Leola Blueford of Oakland, California and Shelvy Dennis of Stockton, California; eleven grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Granddaddy,

I'm sorry it's hard to sit and talk to you, I've always had a problem expressing my feelings, especially when sad, so I'm writing this for my dad to read to you.

As this sunsets upon our life granddaddy, your body positioning to rest. It truly breaks my heart, but I know He only takes the best! I know you'll be watching over me so that eases the pain. Just know I'll surely carry you in my heart til we meet again!

You are one of the greatest men I've ever known, your life full of love and labour, the love for your family so true, you did your best by all of us and we will always remember you! I have encouraged myself to not stand by your grave and weep, I know you are not there, I know you don't sleep, you're a thousand winds that blow, you are the falling snow, you're the gently showers of rain and the fields of ripening grain! You're in the morning hush and in graceful rush, being the star shining in the night, in the flowers that bloom and never the less, even with me in my quiet room. I refuse to stand by a grave and cry - my guts say you're not there cause in my heat you'll never die!

We sit beside your bed, our hearts crushed and sore, we did our duty til the end, til we could do no more! As we watch you sinking and fading away, though we are heart broken we know you cannot stay! My lips cannot speak how much we all you granddaddy, someday I could only hope to be as good hearted as you! Anytime I'm lonely and my smile becomes a frown, look for me, I'll look to the sky knowing you'll be the angel looking down. . .

*Love,
Your Granddaughter,
Kathrine Hogg*
