Darling Ann Robinson "D.J."

Darling Robinson, the daughter of Raymond Jackson and Evelyn Jean Overstreet was born April 19, 1943 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was the only child. Her parents preceded her in death.

She grew up and was educated in Oklahoma City. She also graduated with the Class of 1961, Douglass High School.

Darling married Porter Robinson Sr., one child was born to this union, Porter Robinson Jr., preceded her in death.

Darling was baptized at East 7th Street Church of Christ in Oklahoma City, under the teachings and leadership of G.P. Holt. She started the United Ladies Chorus. She got along well with others and always had a beautiful smile for everyone.

Darling worked for the State of Oklahoma for many years. She moved to Wichita, Kansas and worked for the State until she took ill. She came back to Oklahoma and had her own tax services.

Sister Robinson was a faithful member of Northeast Church of Christ. Because of her health issues, she was in a nursing home for the last 12 years. She passed away May 30, 2020 at Baptist Hospital.

Her survivors are her daughter, Cequita "Penny" Robinson; three granddaughters, La'Cresha', Teondra of Oklahoma City, and Lenia of Texas; a grandson Hezekiah of Oklahoma City; three great granddaughters, Jamiah, Cherokee, and Ta'Shya of Oklahoma City; one great grandson, Travon; two goddaughters, Sophia (Arthur) Westbrook and Julie Andrews; a host of cousins and adopted family, friends and family of Northeast Church of Christ.

Spread My Wings & Fly

As I spread my wings and fly
I don't want you to cry.
I want you to remember the joy, love, and times.
I enjoyed my time on earth,
with family, friends, and other close ones.
But now it's time for me to spread my wings and fly.
Remember I love you all and take care.
See you soon, my sweet Butterflies.
